

CAROLINA MOUNTAIN NAON

18th Annual Orthopaedic Nursing Conference

OCTOBER 7, 2022

DESCRIPTION

Join us at MAHEC this Fall in the beautiful mountains of Western North Carolina, or from the comfort of your own home via Webex, for a one-of-a-kind conference. This year's event features speakers from Carolina Hand and Sports Medicine, Asheville Arthritis and Osteoporosis Center, Southeastern Sports Medicine, and Mission Health.

You will have the opportunity to learn more about osteoporosis, biological augmentation of rotator cuff pathology, orthostatic hypotension, ortho-trauma stop the bleed, osteoporosis, and cervical spine disorders.

Along with learning some exciting things about orthopaedic care, you will have the opportunity to network with other orthopaedic care providers and submit questions to an expert panel of speakers. This will be a continuing education activity for nurses, occupational therapists/assistants, and physical therapists/assistants to achieve contact hours. We look forward to having you participate in this educational event.
